

Recognition of excellence

In 2007–08 the Department continued its success at the second annual Whitehall and Westminster World Civil Service Awards.

Nine finalists from the Department were shortlisted for the 13 categories in the 2007 Awards.

The customers workstream team in the Pensions Transformation Programme won the Diversity Award for their work in putting diversity at the heart of the programme.

The award recognises significant improvements in diversity and equality.

The Department's Benefit Strategy Directorate won the Joined Up Government Award for their work with The Pension Service and local authorities in helping to increase pensioner incomes and tackle poverty.

The award recognises joint working arrangements and using a coordinated strategy for implementation and delivery.
